The SBUKZ is also part of the VINCI Group of companies, one of the largest global built environment organisations. Being part of the same group lends itself to collaborative working, following similar procedures and having access to a global resource in terms of people, equipment, technology, and common suppliers.

We are dedicated to ensuring there is transparency in our business and in our approach to combatting modern slavery in all our operations. We expect the same high standards from all our subcontractors and suppliers.

Our policy draws upon the VINCI Group's code of ethics and conduct (the "Code"), which underpins our strong values on corporate culture and guide our activities.

1. THE MODERN SLAVERY ACT 2015

- The Modern Slavery Act 2015 is an Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom. It is designed to tackle slavery in the UK and consolidates previous offences relating to trafficking and slavery. The act extends to England and Wales.
- Section 54 of the UK's Modern Slavery Act 2015 is the transparency in supply chains provision. It requires commercial organisations operating in the UK, with an annual turnover of £36 million or more, to prepare an annual statement on the steps the SBUKZ has taken, if any, to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not happening in its own business and supply chains. The statement must be approved by the board of directors (or equivalent management body) and signed by a director (or equivalent) and published on the homepage of the website of the commercial organisation (or a link on the homepage to the statement must be provided).
- More than 49.6 million people are estimated to be entrapped in modern slavery across the world and an estimated 100,000 victims in the UK in 2020. They are deprived of their freedom for the personal or financial gain of their exploiter.
- Modern Slavery is a term used to encapsulate both offences in the Modern Slavery Act: slavery, servitude and forced or compulsory labour; and human trafficking. Modern Slavery can take many forms the most common being domestic servitude, sex trafficking, forced labour, bonded labour, child labour and forced marriage.
